

Unit 5 — Media Literacy

Track G+M · Klasse 9 · Niveau G/M

Learning objectives

- I can spot 3 signs of misinformation in a short article.
- I can use seem to / appear to / claim to for hedged claims.
- I can write a 120-word media-literacy review.

Lead-in

Eli's uncle forwarded a viral post. The post claimed a new wonder-fruit could solve everything from sleep problems to maths grades. Eli read it twice. "Mr. Yilmaz," he said, "is every fruit like this?" Mr. Yilmaz smiled. "No," he said. "But every viral post is. Welcome to media literacy."

Vocabulary

- source
- claim
- evidence
- fact-check
- misinformation
- disinformation
- bias
- headline
- clickbait
- study
- statistic
- anecdote

Key points

- Hedged language is what careful writing sounds like — neither lying nor over-claiming.

Practise

- Choose: seems / claims / appears: This study _____ to be peer-reviewed. The article _____ to support the claim, but the link is broken.
- Match: clickbait → exaggerated headline; primary source → original. (T / F)
- Build 4 hedged-claim sentences about a viral post or article.

Your turn

Mini-review, 120 words. Pick a viral post or article. Write a short review: Source? Evidence? Bias? + what would change my mind. Use 3 hedged claims.

Reflect

- I can spot 3 signs of misinformation.
- I can use seem to / appear to / claim to.
- I can write a 120-word media-literacy review.
